WHAT'S HAPPENING

What: A company wants about 5 acres of the fairgrounds for an edge data center, a parking structure and a helipad.

How long: The fair board signed a nonbinding agreement to study it. A lease could run up to 100 years.

How big: The company told other fairgrounds 8 to 10 megawatts, about the power of 7,000 to 9,000 homes. No figure has been given for Perris.

Who can end it: City bans won't reach this state land, but the fair board can end the agreement with 30 days' notice. Ventura's fair board voted to end its agreement with the same company in September.

More than 150 people came in September. Bring one neighbor.
